

income

count me in!

A steady income affects our health – especially our kids. It can provide good nutrition and a healthy place to live. And a regular income helps us feel part of a strong community. Good health, strong community — yours, ours, everybody's.

Income impacts health.

